Jim Thomas is a nationally published artist with numerous professional art association memberships, including TSOS, AArC, and DFAC. Among the many awards won, Thomas is a three-time “Gold Medalist” of the Texas Cowboy Artist Association. College training in earth sciences, chemistry, and metallurgy, combined with more than 41 years professional team experience with architects, engineers, government and private public art administrators are a foundation for his years of professional sculpting, art foundry, and metal fabrications experience. The following pieces were designed and crafted by Jim Thomas:

“The Bell Steer”: First in the series and commissioned through a grant from Dell in 2003. During cattle drives, the lead steer often wore a bell around its neck to assist the cattlemen in finding the beginning of the herd.

“The Pioneer Woman”: Dedicated to the memory of Harriett “Hattie” Cluck, one of the first known women to travel up the trail. Commissioned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Peckham, The Pioneer Woman bears a resemblance to Mrs. Bill “Sissy” Peckham, who sat for hours with the sculptor.

“The Pioneer Boy”: Commissioned in honor of Emmett Cluck, a five year old boy who went up the Chisholm Trail with his family. Ruth Koughan made the donation for this statue and her grandson, Riley Koughan, served as the model for the sculpture.

“The Resting Steer”: Dedicated in honor of Oscar Edward Quick and Eugene Olof Quick. The Steer has the “OQ” brand, which was registered by Quick in 1891. Marjorie and Don Quick made their gift in honor of their father and grandfather, who were both citizens of Round Rock.

“Goin’ to Water”: As a symbolic link to their parents’ agricultural background in Texas and to their ancestors’ frontier life of the “old country”, Edward Reyes Torres, Mary Zordan Torres and Gloria Torres Zamarripa, commissioned this longhorn sculpture with its Torres Reyes registered brand.

Twenty one art sculptures on loan from regional artists are now installed on the Downtown, Prete and Centennial Plazas. These diverse pieces are on loan from the artists for at least one year.

The Sculpture Art Stroll includes pieces by sculptors Ho Baron, Craig Blaha, John Christensen, Bob Coffee, Michael Epps, Terry Jones, Herb Long, Sun C. McColgiw, Isabella Puhala, Pokey Park, Dar Richardson, Marla Ripperda, and Johnny Shipman

The Sculpture Art Stroll was a vision of the Round Rock Arts and part of the Arts Master Plan. The goals were to: Provide visual interest on the Round Rock downtown area; Increase the number and variety of outdoor public art installations by local and regional artists; Stimulate creative thought and reflective conversation among residents and visitors.

Each annual exhibit has a wonderful array of artwork that addresses these goals and helps create a more vibrant area in the center of our city.

This exhibit is made possible in part by the City of Round Rock, Texas Society of Sculpture, Round Rock Arts and the City of Round Rock Parks department for expert installation of the work.
