WELCOME

Mayor Craig Morgan

Welcome to Round Rock! We are honored to have you visit our vibrant and growing city, and I'm excited for you to discover all of the wonderful amenities that our community has to offer.

Here in Round Rock, we're known for our friendly atmosphere, dynamic economy, visionary leadership, beautiful parks, and our local culture and entertainment options. It's no wonder why we've been named one of the coolest suburbs in the country!

There's plenty to do for the whole family here, including taking a stroll through our vibrant Downtown's restaurants and shops, checking out our many dining choices, shopping the Round Rock Premium Outlets, or catching a game at one of our state-of-the-art sports facilities. We are excited to call ourselves home to America's largest indoor water park this year with the opening of Kalahari Resorts and Conventions in 2020.

As you flip through the pages of this year's Arts and Culture Guide, you'll see that our arts and culture scene is thriving, from hands-on workshops at our new Downtowner Gallery, to unique annual events that draw in thousands of visitors. We hope to see you at one of them!

Yours truly,
Craig Morgan
Mayor of Round Rock

ROUND ROCK

Round Rock is an amazing city and continues to be one of the fastest growing municipalities in the United States. The City of Round Rock adopted an Arts Master Plan in June of 2011. “The City is at an important transition point: arts and culture are becoming a crucial component of the City’s quality of life.”

To this end, the City Council has identified the need to expand and strengthen arts and cultural activities in Round Rock. The Arts Master Plan has been in place for eight years, and the City of Round Rock has provided the initial increase (organization and fund) in arts and culture assets. The Arts Master Plan is a fluid project that will be augmented to include new arts ideas, strengthen its arts and culture organizations, and visioning toward the future by growing and maintaining the quality of life with a strong and vibrant arts community.

Round Rock features an abundance of historical registered buildings, a rich history celebrating our Texas roots, our award-winning educational institutions, promoting many of Round Rock’s arts and cultural non-profit agencies, a vibrant Downtown historic area, businesses, restaurants, galleries and live performances featuring theatre, artist studios, museum, art gallery, an arts integration academy, and public art sculptures that make for a successful and fun place to see morning, noon and night. The Round Rock arts and cultural scene is becoming a tourist destination that attract visitors, continues to preserve and reuse historic buildings, enhances the image and visibility of Round Rock’s place, and fosters a supportive environment for arts and culture.

The arts are an essential ingredient that makes our community whole, as well as unique. The investment the city is making through the arts is continuing to make Round Rock a truly special place.
