

My poem:

By: Thilleli Oulebsire

Neighbors dogs barking
Trees tapping on the window
Life doesn't frighten me at all

No school anywhere
Everyone trapped at home
Life doesn't frighten me at all

Politicians everywhere
10 at a time is the limit
But i'm still not frightened at all

People at home
We are all alone
Still not frightened

I listen to the news
Death is all around
Events canceled
Stores closed
Unemployed mothers and fathers
Kids bored
Shortage
Deaths all around the world

Life doesn't frighten me at all

Toilet paper fights
Water gone off shelves
Life doesn't frighten me at all

Parks closed
People rome
No No they will never frighten me at all

The classroom empty
Children disconnected
Online everything
But yet life doesn't frighten me at all

Don't tell me who died
Don't wait for me to cry
I am only afraid in my dreams

I am never scared
I will never be
I can handle this
I will never be tired

Life doesn't frighten me at all
Not at all
Not at all

Life doesn't frighten me at all.

Neighbors dogs barking
Trees tapping on the window
Life doesn't frighten me at all

No school anywhere

Politicians everywhere
But i'm still not frightened at all

People at home
We are all alone

I listen to the news
Shortage

Life doesn't frighten me at all

Toilet paper fights
Life doesn't frighten me at all

Parks closed
People roam
No No they will never frighten me at all

The classroom empty
But yet life doesn't frighten me at all

Don't tell me who died
I am only afraid in my dreams

I am never scared

Life doesn't frighten me at all
Not at all
Not at all

Life doesn't frighten me at all.
