FRIENDS

OF THE

ROUND ROCK

PUBLIC LIBRARY

EMPOWER, ENERGIZE, ENRICH

OUR MISSION

The Friends of the Round Rock Public Library provide funds and volunteers to enrich and energize the services and programs of the library and empower our members to connect with the community through activities and outreach.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

BOOK NOOK

Volunteers at the Book Nook, located on the 2nd floor, sell books, keep the shelves in order, and shelve new titles.

EVENTS

Volunteers provide assistance with events throughout the year. Duties may include promoting the library resources and helping the community participate in events.

BOARD MEMBER

Board members support the services of the library by raising funds, participating in events and advocating for the library.

PUBLICITY

Volunteers assist in writing for the newsletter, and create promotional materials for events as well as the website and social media posts.

FUNDRAISING

Volunteers are needed to serve on the Fund Raising Committee and for special projects.
