

GARDENING IN

ROUND ROCK

Spring is the season for gardening! Check out this list of local shops, groups, and resources to help you get started, find ideas, or take your garden to the next level.

Plant a Seed ... Read

One of our featured displays this month on the 3rd floor of the library is gardening themed. Come see what books we have on display today or you can check it out from home here:

Seed Library

Need some seeds? The seed library is a collection of open-pollinated and heirloom seeds that are available for Round Rock citizens to take home and plant. Check them out on the 1st floor behind the desk!

We also accept seed donations. Get more information at:

Round Rock Seed Savers

Meet fellow gardeners and support the seed library by coming to a meeting of the Seed Savers! These volunteers get together to clean, husk, and sort donated seeds so they can be checked out to patrons. They meet twice a month, on the 2nd & 4th Wednesdays. All ages welcome.

March 12th, 11 am - 1 pm: Round Rock Seed Savers at Round Rock Public Library: <https://discovery.roundrocktexas.gov/events>

March 26th, 2 - 4 pm: Round Rock Seed Savers at Round Rock Public Library: <https://discovery.roundrocktexas.gov/events>

Williamson County Master Gardeners

The Master Gardeners are volunteers trained by Texas A&M AgriLife Extension. They hold classes at the library on the first Thursday of every month, have demonstration gardens which are open to the public, and have a help desk for gardening questions. Check out their site: <https://txmg.org/williamson/>
