Round Rock Preservation Lunch and Learn

DISCOVERING ROUND ROCK HISTORY PROGRAM

Williamsburg, Virginia, "Texas Style"

The Army Colony, IH-35 and 1956 Round Rock, Texas

Guest Speaker: Tim Todd

Tuesday, October 28, 2025

12:00pm - 1:00pm.

Allen R. Baca Center, 301 W. Bagdad Ave.

Bring your lunch - We'll provide water and cookies.

Tim Todd's Round Rock roots run deep. Three generations of Todd men and their families have made a significant impact on Central Texas. Tim and wife Sally have lived in Georgetown since 1985. Tim will relate personal stories of the Todd family's contributions as they experienced the rapid changes in Round Rock during the "mid-century" years, as well as the growth and successes of these dedicated local historians.

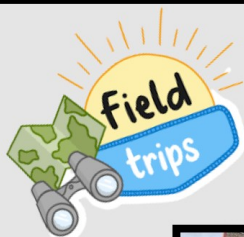

Tim is owner of T.A. Todd Construction Inc., specializing in residential remodeling, located in Georgetown, Texas. Tim is a community leader in Georgetown and Round Rock, devoting much of his time giving back to the community where he lives and works. Among his many civic responsibilities, Tim currently serves as the Board President for the Williamson County Historical Museum.

Tim learned valuable life lessons about community involvement from his grandparents, Col. W. N. Todd, Jr., and wife Nan; and from his parents Lt. Col. William Todd and wife Jean. His grandparents are known to Round Rock as being part of the Army Colony and renovating the old Mexican School, located in Old Town, and turning it into their residence in 1953. In 1976 Tim's parents returned to Round Rock after 26 years of service in the US Army and 10 years in Chicago as Executive Director at The Glenwood School for Boys. Lt. Col. William Todd was named a Round Rock Local Legend in 1995.
