Sawyer & Co Breakfast / Lady Bird Trail Stroll

In 1948, Faye "Arkie" Sawyer opened Arkie's Grill in East Austin—a no-frills diner serving up hot coffee, hearty breakfasts, and classic blue-plate specials. For over 60 years, Arkie's was a neighborhood staple built on good food, friendly faces, and fair prices. When Sawyer & Co. opened in 2014, owners set out to honor Arkie's spirit while creating something all their own. Today, they celebrate that same East Austin hospitality with a fresh blend of Southern comfort and a Mid Century Modern vibe. They're proud to carry the torch, building community one plate and cocktail at a time. At Sawyer & Co., they're not just serving food—they're serving joy.

After breakfast we'll stop at Lady Bird Lake Trail for a relaxing stroll on your own (weather permitting). It's a great spot for walking, jogging, and enjoying views of the lake.

This guided tour will take you through key areas of the building, providing insights into Texas history and the Texas Legislature. The Texas Capitol is surrounded by approximately twenty-two acres of land known as the Capitol Grounds, also referred to as Capitol Square. In 1993, the completion of the Capitol Extension created an entirely new setting for the north side of the Capitol. The 1995 to 1996 restoration of the historic South Grounds returned the park-like setting to its 1888 to 1915 appearance and updated vital systems such as fire protection, water-conserving irrigation, lighting, and accessible walkways. While exploring the capital grounds choose a place to sit and eat. There are many choices to choose from.
